SALT LAKE LEAGUE BASEBALL LEAGUE

Local Team Jumps Into First Place for First Time in Its History.

By winning yesterday's game, Salt Lake jumps to the top of the percentage column. This is the first time in the history of league baseball in the city that Salt Lake has headed the league of which it was a member. It has tied for first place with other teams on the opening game of a season and has led Ogden on a couple of occasions in an inter-city series, but in a league of four or six clubs after the season had fairly started this morning for the first time Salt Lake leads them all.

Standing of the Teams.	Won.	Lost.	P. C.
Salt Lake	6	3	.667
Ogden	4	5	.444
Park City	3	6	.333
Provo	2	7	.222
St. George	1	8	.111

(Special to The Herald.) Ogden, June 7.—Outplayed in every department of the game, the Gimlinites went down to defeat before the Salt Lake team of the state league at Glenwood park this afternoon. The score was 5 to 0 and it would have been 5 to 1 had it not been for two disastrous passed balls by the usually reliable Walter Seare. Each of these bingles cost a run. Jensen, who was on the rubber for the visitors, pitched a heady, steady game. Once or twice he seemed scheduled for a balloon ascension, but he steadied himself in time whenever he was in danger. That the hard-hitting Lobsters accumulated only six hits off Jensen's delivery, that he struck out eight men, and that he passed only one gentleman to first, gives an idea of the quality of his hurling. The fielding honors for Salt Lake were carried off by Stewart, who made two difficult running catches in right. Hits bunched with errors in the second, third and seventh innings put the Indian sign on the locals. Blexrud pitched a game that would have won under ordinary circumstances, but his support was weird. The detailed score follows:

FIGHTERS MUST STAND TRIAL

Judge Holds That McGovern and Jimmy Britt Broke the Law.

New York, June 7.—Terry McGovern and Jimmy Britt, the pugilists; Harry Pollock, manager of the Twentieth Century Athletic club, and Tim Hurst, who refereed the bout between McGovern and Britt before the Twentieth Century club about two weeks ago, today were held for trial in the court of special sessions by Judge Brainerd. They are charged with the violation of that section of the penal code referring to prizefighting. Bail was fixed at $500 in each case. Twelve other persons, including fighters, waiters and ticket sellers, also were held for trial on a similar charge.

In his opinion holding the accused, Magistrate Brainerd said: "The uncontradicted testimony of two police officers shows that charges of admission were made. There seems to have been a defiant and reckless disregard of the penal statute under the supposed protection of a reluctant referee. The farcical action of a multitude of so-called members was a crude attempt to make the law a mockery."

BICYCLE RACES TONIGHT.

Both Salt Lake and Ogden Have Meets.

The weather man says good weather, and the bicycle riders are correspondingly happy and the prospects for a good night's racing at the saucer tonight are bright, as the riders need the money. Tuesday night's programme, which was postponed on account of rain, is the card. It consists of a three-mile lap professional, half-mile handicap professional, half-mile invitation professional. The amateurs have a mile open and a mile and out race.

WREN GOES OUT QUICK.

Bingham Fight Fans Witness a Live-ly Bout.

Bingham, June 7.—Tommy Wren of Butte was knocked out in the first round by James Fitzpatrick of Bingham in what was to be a twenty-round go between the Old Crow Athletic club tonight. Wren lasted just two minutes. It was a high and tumble fight.

MISS STERRY DISAPPEARED BY MRS. STERRY

Her Staying Power Given Severe Test by Crack English Tennis Player.

Liverpool, June 7.—Miss May Sutton of Pasadena, Cal., was given one of the hardest matches she ever has had in England in the second round of the Northern Counties ladies' singles championship, played at Alburgh, Liverpool, this afternoon. Her opponent was Mrs. Sterry, who, as Miss Cooper, gained many tennis honors a few years ago. The contest was a long and hard one, but Mrs. Sterry, who was Miss Sutton's opponent, was not running all over the court. Although winning the first set, she lost the second—the first set that she had lost in the tournament play. By her staying power she secured the third set and match, but she was tired out and she and D. R. Rhodes of Boston were beaten in the all-England mixed doubles championship by E. Casagari and Mrs. Sterry. Earlier in the day she and Mr. Rhodes defeated Mr. Fry and Miss Longhurst, so that the day was a severe test for the staying powers of the champion.

Scores: All-England mixed doubles championship, preliminary round—D. R. Rhodes and Miss Sutton defeated Mr. Fry and Miss Longhurst, 6-2, 6-3. First round: Mr. Casagari and Mr. Sterry defeated Mr. Rhodes and Miss Sutton, 6-4, 6-3. Ladies' singles, second round—Miss Sutton defeated Mrs. Sterry, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3.

ATHLETES AND ANARCHISTS

Learned College President Has Some Queer Ideas About Sport.

Chicago, June 7.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Lebanon, Ill., says: President Chamberlin of McKendree college, in his annual report to the board of trustees yesterday, entered into a vigorous discussion of intercollegiate athletics, especially football, recommending the abolishment of the game. He declared many institutions of learning are schools of anarchy.

"As for the college spirit," said President Chamberlin, "it must be admitted that the argument in favor of such form of sport is well grounded. If the chief object of the institution of learning is to promote so-called physical culture at the expense of human life and the broken bodies of contestants, it is a school of anarchy. It is this spirit which leads to hazing, breaking into property, keeping ferocious bulldogs, automobiles, and other like dissipation in many of our institutions of learning."

"I do not wish to be understood as being opposed to athletics. Physical culture is important and field sports on a home field are not to be discouraged."

"What do you women's rights women want, anyhow?"

"To be treated like men—nothing more."

"Ah! come in and have a drink and a cigar on me."

BETTY'S GIFT.

(San Francisco Argonaut.)

A Lancashire vicar was asked by the choir to call upon old Betty, who was deaf, but who insisted in joining in the solo of the anthem, and to ask her to sing the hymn. He shouted into her ear: "Betty, I've been requested to ask you to sing the hymn." At last she caught the word "singing," and replied: "Not to me be the praise, sir; it's a gift."
